Proof of payment includes the following:

- Itemized, dated, paid receipts from your health club
- Bank or credit card statements
- Paycheck stubs if your club fees are automatically deducted from that account
- Receipts or statements should include the name of the family member enrolled in the club and the individual charges for a full reimbursement of health club fees or fitness classes.
- The dollar amount you receive may be considered taxable income. Consult your tax advisor about how to treat this reimbursement on your taxes.

A qualified health club is:

A full-service health club with a variety of exercise equipment, including:

- · Cardiovascular equipment like treadmills and bikes
- Strength-training equipment like free weights and weight machines

To receive the fitness reimbursement for a qualified pay-as-you-go health club, get paid receipts from the club for your records.

What doesn't qualify?

- · Martial arts or yoga centers
- · Gymnastics, tennis, aerobic, or pool-only facilities
- · Country clubs or social clubs
- Sports teams or leagues

Be sure to talk with your doctor before starting an exercise program.
